Deposits on single use bottles and cans ('Pant')

In Denmark you pay a small deposit every time you buy drinks in cans or bottles with a deposit mark. This is called 'Pant'. You get your deposit back by returning empty cans and bottles using reversed vending machines in supermarkets. After depositing them, you can use the receipt while paying at the supermarket to get a discount on you purchases.

Rental conditions and maintenance regulations

Moving in:

The apartment is refurbished and functional upon moving in. When moving in, a move-in report is made and sent to the resident. If the resident subsequently discovers additional items that do not relate to the cleaning and visible defects, these can be submitted to kon-tor@horsensstudieboliger.dk and possibly attached photo documentation within 14 days of moving in.

The lease period:

According to the contract, the internal maintenance is the responsibility of the tenant and includes, among other things:

Cleaning (floor, hob, oven, sinks, tiles etc.)

Cleaning of drains

Venting

Other repairs by agreement with the janitor

The colors in the apartment may not be changed. Expenses related to reestablishment of changes made by the tenant is imposed upon the tenant upon vacating.

Do not drill into tiles and joints.

Flammable items/liquids may not be stored in storage rooms.

In the event of necessary repairs, the janitor reserves the right, together with any craftsman, to perform this work within normal working hours. If the tenant is unable to be present, the janitor has the right to gain access to the apartment by prior agreement.

Termination:

Contractual notice 3 months to the 1st of the month. Termination must be done via www.horsensstudieboliger.dk.

Moving out must take place 14 days before the end of the lease, during which period repairs take place.

The lease must be terminated after graduation, unless otherwise agreed.

Moving out:

Before moving out, arrange a time for a move-out inspection with the office.

When moving out, a move-out report is made, and keys + key fobs are handed over.

The tenant has the right to attend the move-out inspection. If the tenant does not do so, it is solely Horsens Studieboliger's assessment as to whether the lease is handed over in a satisfactory condition. Horsens Studieboliger reserve the right to include expenses for hidden defects in the moving statement, even if they do not appear in the move-out report.

Any claim against the tenant, including damage to the rented property, lack of cleaning when moving out, unpaid rent, etc. will be offset against the deposit when moving out. Any surplus that may arise is sent to the tenant at the end of the following month. Any shortfall must be paid by the tenant within 14 days from the date of the settlement.

Note:

It is always the Danish version of the contract, conditions and other information that applies.

House rules

1. The tenant is liable for all damages which they might cause to rooms, apartments, common rooms, and the furniture assigned to these by the dormitory. Smoking indoors is considered a breach of contract and may result in large costs for cleaning and sealing when moving out.
2. The tenant is obligated to pay the rent when it is due. Repeated negligence may lead to instant expulsion.
3. Noise may not be of inconvenience to other residents. This applies to both the indoor and outdoor areas of the dormitory. Especially between 22 – 07. If somebody is being noisy you must contact the person on your own before a complaint is submitted to the office.
4. The use of narcotics is prohibited on dormitory grounds and will lead to expulsion.
5. For the sake of keeping escape routes clear you are not allowed to place objects in hallways, entrances, and balcony accesses. Objects will be removed without notice and liability.
6. Garbage must be placed in the designated containers and nowhere else. The garbage must be sorted, and it is your responsibility to sort it correctly. When disposing of furniture and the like, we refer to Blå Kors (secondhand shop) on tel.: +45 75 78 18 18 or email: horsens@blaakorsgenbrug.dk.
7. Batteries goes in the battery buckets which can be found by the waste stations and garage.
8. If technical problems arise, such as leaking/running toilet/water taps or similar, you must contact the janitor or the office.
9. Windows in entrances and hallways MUST always be closed.
10. Laundry and washing rooms must be left clean and tidy. Laundry baskets must not be removed!
11. It is the residents' responsibility to leave the facilities of the dormitory in a clean and tidy state. This applies to both the indoor and outdoor areas.
12. Vacuum cleaners MUST be cleaned/emptied and put back after use, on the same day!
13. One small pet is allowed at the dormitory but must not be of any inconvenience to other residents or to the dormitory facilities/equipment. As soon as it is outside the apartment it MUST be on a leash throughout the dormitory grounds!
14. The smoke alarm which is mounted in the ceiling MUST NOT be covered or demounted!
15. All residents in the concerned block must leave the building if the fire alarms set off. The building must not be reentered before the fire alarm is stopped.
16. Fire doors may ONLY be used in case of fire!

Violation of the above-mentioned rules will lead to a warning or immediately expulsion.

In general, respect each other, talk with each other, and inform your neighbors if you want to throw a party.

Cooking/Ventilation/Fire

The fire alarm is often activated due to mistakes made by the residents.

When the fire alarm is activated, the fire brigade will arrive briefly afterwards regardless of whether there is a fire or not. If you cause a false fire alarm, the amount of the fire department's charge will be billed to you.

THEREFORE, when cooking you must:

- Turn on the hood. Be aware that the hood runs on time and will switch off automatically depending on what you put it on.
- Open the window a little or at least open the small ventilation device on the side of the window.
- When cooking it is important that there is some air circulation in the room. The hood runs on an extraction system which must have air to work properly, and the rooms are very airtight so smoke from cooking is at high risk to set off the fire alarm.
- If the fire alarm is activated, you must leave the building regardless of whether there is a fire or not and you must stay out until the fire operations manager gives permission to enter the building again.
- You must never cover or dismantle the smoke detector; this may result in direct expulsion.
- If you accidentally activate the fire alarm e.g., due to burnt food you may be fined so REMEMBER to open the window a bit.

It is also important that you regularly remember to clean the oven/microwave, as grease and splashes from previous food preparation cause smoke. Remember to clean the filter in the hood as well.

Under the sink in your apartment/room you will find two containers. One is for food waste the other is for residual waste.

There are waste containers in the college's outdoor common areas. It is IMPORTANT that you dispose of your waste in the correct containers. There is a logo on each container so you can see which type it is intended for.

If the waste isn't sorted correctly, the containers won't be emptied. All plastic, metal and glass waste, as well as cartons must be emptied and scraped!
